

IECLO

International & European
Criminal Law Observatory
ON CULTURAL ISSUES, HUMAN RIGHTS AND SECURITY

SURVEY ON TRAINEESHIP

Q: Would you please indicate your first and last name as well as the sending institution?

A: My name is Mosteanu Paula-Ioana, student at University of Transilvania, from Brasov.

Q: What did drive you to choose IECLO and the University of Salerno as hosting institution?

A: I chose IECLO to improve my abilities regarding a field of work that I wasn't familiar with and I chose the University of Salerno because I had the opportunity to hear from its prestige from fellow students.

Q: How long did your traineeship last?

A: The traineeship lasted from July til September 2024.

Q: How was the reception from the Mentor and from the other Members of the Observatory?

A: The reception was welcoming, they all made sure I understood what I was going to complete for the duration of the traineeship.

Q: Could you please explain in detail your occupations during the traineeship?

A: My occupations consisted of editing articles for the Journal and completing monthly wraps regarding legal matters of the world, especially concerning the European Union.

Q: Did you have any colleagues? Were you included in a team of similarly tasked personnel?

A: Yes, we met several time and they helped with the research.

Q: What did you enjoy the most of this experience?

A: I enjoyed the fact that I could improve my skills and that I got to work in a team.

Q: Has the traineeship in some way changed the way you look at or approach working?

A: Yes, it had made me more careful to details and made me open to work in a team.

Q: Do you believe this working experience has deepened you knowledge in the field of International and European Criminal Law in comparison to your level at the start of the traineeship?

IECLO

International & European
Criminal Law Observatory
ON CULTURAL ISSUES, HUMAN RIGHTS AND SECURITY

A: Yes, it had, because now I know the tools I need to research anything regarding this field.

Q: Do you believe this working experience has honed your skills in work management (e.g., team-working, time management, etc.) in comparison to your level at the start of the traineeship?

A: Yes, it clearly impacted my skills in a positive matter.

Q: Do you feel that your working/career aspirations and goals have in some way changed since the start of the traineeship?

A: My career aspirations stayed the same, even though I enjoyed the traineeship, my path remains the one I chose beforehand.